

Shauna McIntyre

Director

Shauna McIntyre joined our Board of Directors in April 2019. Currently, she works as the Program Lead for Google Automotive Services and has been with Alphabet, Inc. since 2016. Previously, she held integral roles at Egon Zehnder International, Achatas Power, Inc., Honeywell International, Inc. and Ford Motor Company. Ms. McIntyre brings a wealth of knowledge and expertise to our board in a wide variety of subjects within the automotive industry, including manufacturing, finance and operations.

Shauna serves on the Board of Directors for the Los Altos Educational Foundation and was also a co-founding board member for the North American Council for Freight Efficiency. Ms. McIntyre holds a B.S. from the University of California, Los Angeles, a M.S. from the University of California, Berkley, and a M.B.A. from Harvard.